Different magnitudes and dimensions of silver wires are rolled up, visually following the line is challenging and still, the high individuality does not contradict the high memorability.

Silver meets Lava

Silver is combined with lavastones, so structures and colours are merged in a playful symbiosis, while their diversity is appreciated.

Earrings Ball Peen

The grace of these pieces lies largely in their unobtrusiveness and lucidity. Chokers, rings, bracelets and earrings can be worn by themselves or combined in many versions.
